The proposed amendment to the Con-Rev. Mr. Tibbitts. titution, recently introduced into the House of Representatives by Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, forbidding the payment of the rebel debt, is almost identical, in effect, with the proposition originated in the editorial columns of the LEADER several weeks ago. The scheme of the copperheads was to place the Federal and rebel debt upon the ame basis. For this reason, the adoption of the amendment of Mr. Wilson would be equivalent to declaring that the obligations of the Government must be honored. Hence we claim some credit for being the liams county.
